BOY SCOUT

JANUARY 19

Boy Scout Troop 23 will be holding their annual spaghetti dinner on Saturday, January 19 from 4 -8 pm in Asbury Center. The cost is $8, age 12 to adult, and $5 for youth under age 12.

The meal includes homemade spaghetti sauce, salad, bread, beverage and dessert and most importantly, full service, just like a restaurant. The meal is also available for take out. The scouts will be selling tickets next Sunday after services, or they are available the day of the dinner.

The Price of Admission

Food Pantry Donation of the Month Program January

Please donate paper products

Drop-off box near entrance to Food Pantry

Have you been to a Penguins game? Tickets to PPG Paints Arena cost from $35 for standing room to over $300 for good seats. Many would say it is worth it to cheer on our hockey team during a winning streak.

While Penguin tickets may be high, the cost of your fitness club new year's resolution may be more reasonable. $10, $25, or more per month is surely not too much to pay for a healthier you.

Perhaps another price of admission could be considered. The cost of donating a package of paper towels to the food pantry is substantially less than a hockey ticket, and a big bag of napkins costs about the same as a sports drink at a fitness club. If you are leading an adult Sunday school, a small group or any church activity, maybe you could request a paper product donation to the food pantry as admission. Let's keep the pantry shelves stocked during these very challenging times for our food pantry members. And Go Pens!
