New Format for 8:30 Sunday Worship

For many years, our church has offered two Sunday morning worship celebrations, each in a traditional format, comprised of liturgy, hymns, and choral music with piano and organ accompaniment. Our Church Council has often wondered how we might reach out to persons whose musical tastes and preferences vary from that norm. After years of discussion, and after hearing the responses of our own people through a survey last month, our Church Council has approved the launch of a new-format worship service, to be held at 8:30 a.m. in Sanner Chapel. This new service will be less liturgical and more musical. It will seek to proclaim the Gospel in new ways, involving multimedia, drama and music led by a team of musicians and vocalists. Although the precise launch date has not yet been set, it will be announced soon.

Pray for our launch team, as plans are finalized for this service.

ONE BODY, ONE SPIRIT, MANY PARTS: UNITY CONVERSATION
FOR MT. LEBANON UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Sunday, October 13
Noon-2 pm Asbury Center

Lunch and facilitated discussion led by District Supt. Dawn Hand.
Celebrate what we share, acknowledge our differences. RSVP the church office.

All are welcome and encouraged to attend.

Mark your calendar to attend MLUMC's first Unity Lunch. It will be on Sunday October 13th, immediately following the 10:45 service. A free-will basket will be provided.

As you may know, our denomination faces challenges and we as a congregation may be called to participate in MLUMC's path within our Conference. This luncheon is intended to strengthen trust in each other and enhance the Christian love we experience through facilitated conversation, led by UMC Pittsburgh District Superintendent Dawn Hand.

1 Corinthians 12, One Body, One Spirit, Many Parts will inspire us. A brief review of the UMC General Conference decision from February 2019 will be made, with "Tables of 8" discussions of this and what your hopes and concerns are for MLUMC to follow.

Call Michelle at the church office (412/531-7131) to reserve your lunch and to let her know of any food allergies you may have. Child care is being provided, just let us know how many kids will be staying. Our intent is to wrap up between 1:30 and 2pm. ALL are invited and hoped to attend.
