Litany of Remembrance

Pastor: In the rising of the sun and its going down,
we remember him.

People: In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,
we remember him.

Pastor: In the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring,
we remember him.

People: In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer, we remember him.

Pastor: In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn, we remember him.

People: In the beginning of the year and when it ends,
we remember him.

Pastor: When we are weary and in need of strength,
we remember him.

People: When we are lost and sick at heart,
we remember him.

Pastor: When we have joys we yearn to share,
we remember him.

People: So long as we live, he too will live, for he is still a part of us. We remember him.

Old Testament Lesson

Psalm 23

New Testament Lesson

John 14:1-4, 18-19, 25-27

Silent Prayers

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

A Vision of a New Heaven & Earth from Revelation 20:1-4

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,

“See, the home of God is among mortals.
He will dwell with them;
they will be his peoples,
and God himself will be with them;
he will wipe every tear from their eyes.
Death will be no more;
mourning and crying and pain will be no more,
for the first things have passed away.”
