CELEBRATE WONDER™ Temp-Changing Slime

Thermochromic Slime

¼ cup white school glue
1 tablespoon water
Food coloring
3 teaspoons thermochromic pigment
¼ cup liquid starch

SLIME

- Pour ¼ cup white school glue into a large bowl.
- Add 1 tablespoon water and stir until combined.
- Add 5 drop of food coloring and mix well.
- Add 3 teaspoons of thermochromic pigment and mix until uniformly distributed.
- Add in 1/8 cup liquid starch and mix until thick and slimy. Then knead the slime with your hands and return to the starch mixture for another mixing. This step is important because it makes sure there's no unmixed glue hiding in the center of your slime ball.
- If slime is still sticky, add additional starch a little at a time. Make sure to knead until it is no longer sticky. Most batches will use the entire ¼ cup liquid starch that is indicated in this slime recipe.
- Store this color-changing slime in a glass or plastic container with a lid for up to one week. If you haven't played with it for a couple days, you might need to add a little additional starch to it (one teaspoon at a time).

Peter and John

What Peter and John Shared

Assign roles and retell the story. Then respond to the story by answering the question on the following page.

Narrator 1: Peter and John were going up to the temple for prayer at three o'clock in the afternoon, the established prayer time.

Narrator 2: Meanwhile, a man who was crippled since birth was being carried in. Every day, people would place him at the temple gate known as the Beautiful Gate so that he could ask for money from those going into the temple.

Narrator 1: When the man saw Peter and John about to go into the temple, he asked them for money. They stared at him.

Peter: Look at us!

Narrator 2: The man looked at them, thinking they would give him money.

Peter: I don't have any money, but I will give you what I do have. In the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, rise up and walk!

Narrator 1: Then Peter grasped the man's right hand and raised him up. At once the man's feet and ankles became strong, and he began walking around.

Man: (Pantomime jumping up and walking around.)

Narrator 2: The man entered the temple with Peter and John. He was walking, leaping, and praising God!

Man: (Pantomime walking, leaping, and praising God.)

Narrator 1: All the people in the community saw the man walking, leaping, and praising God. They recognized him as the one who used to sit at the Beautiful Gate asking for money. They were filled with amazement and surprise.

Community (class): (Pantomime amazement and surprise.)
