Seventh Sunday After the Epiphany

When Jesus says that we should love our enemies, and do good to those who hate us, we might agree and nod our heads, and concede that this would be a good thing. It's part of our creed. The idea of loving the unlovable is a thread that has been woven into the fabric of our religious attire since we were old enough to recite "God is love" (1 John 4:7). But the harsh truth is that we have a hard time believing it. And further, it is fair to say that most Christians don't practice loving their enemies.

Jesus, we claim to be your followers and we say that we are your disciples. Are we really living as you would have us live? Give us boldness to share your truth. Give us hearts that are willing to turn from our own desires to follow yours. Give us courage to love our enemies. Give us faith that triumphs doubt. ## Today's Scriptures

Luke 6:27-38

<sup>27</sup>"But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, <sup>28</sup>bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. <sup>29</sup>If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. <sup>30</sup>Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. <sup>31</sup>Do to others as you would have them do to you. <sup>32</sup>"If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. <sup>33</sup>If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. <sup>34</sup>If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive as much again. <sup>35</sup>But love your enemies, do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return. Your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for he is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. <sup>36</sup>Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

<sup>37</sup>"Do not judge, and you will not be judged; do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven; <sup>38</sup>give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap; for the measure you give will be the measure you get back."

In Sympathy

Memorial Service

Condolences are offered to the family of long-time church member Ed Reichard, who passed away Sunday, February 13, at the age of 93. He is survived by his wife of 71 years, Bette Lou, his sons David and Rev. Timothy, and his daughter Beth. He is preceded in death by his daughter Cindy Lou.

A memorial service is scheduled for Saturday, March 19 at 11 AM in the Sanctuary of MLUMC. The family will host a luncheon in Asbury Center following the service.

COVID-19 Precautions at MLUMC

Based on CDC recommendations and Allegheny County reaching substantial community transmission levels, we encourage everyone, regardless of vaccination status to wear a mask when gathering inside the church building.

We are grateful for the ability to worship together both in person on Sunday morning and online. We encourage you to continue to participate in worship in whatever way you feel comfortable. You are a part of the MLUMC community regardless of where or how you attend. Stay connected via the web site, www.mlumc.org for the most up to date information

Personnel Change in the Business Office

Virginia Katinsky has departed her position as our church business administrator, effective February 14th, 2022. We wish her well in her future endeavors. Joanne Dempe will continue in her volunteer role as Acting Business Administrator until a permanent replacement can be hired. We thank Joanne for her faithful service!

Livestream Video and Audio Training Sessions

Training sessions for operating the recently installed cameras and upgraded sound system in the Sanctuary have been scheduled. Basic livestream and sound system training will be held at the following times:

Sunday, Feb. 20                      9:30 to 10:30 AM

Sunday, Feb. 27                      9:30 to 10:30 AM

This training will give volunteers a chance to understand and practice with the equipment. We will cover operating the system, basic camera adjustments, and scene selection.

The new video and audio systems make it possible for people to join our services from their computers, phones or devices. That includes people who cannot attend services in person because of sickness, immobility or location, as well as church seekers who are curious and want to see what MLUMC is all about. Your help is needed to ensure that we can offer our livestreamed service to these people every week.

Interested volunteers are encouraged to sit in the balcony any Sunday during the 10:45 traditional service to observe the system in use. For more information or to volunteer, contact Kirk Lowe, klowe1@gmail.com or Monica Kao, mkao@mlumc.org.

Note to Our Livestreaming Viewers

If you are reading this bulletin and announcements while or after viewing the 10:45 service online, please consider sending the church an email telling us what you think of our livestreaming service. For you, how does it compare to attending a service in-person? Were you satisfied with what you saw and heard? What improvements would you like to see? Send your comments to info@mlumc.org. Thank You!

Special Terrific Tuesday Series for Lent - Beginning on March 1st

We will hold a special series of Terrific Tuesday gatherings during the Lenten season, beginning on Shrove Tuesday, March 1st, and concluding on March 29th. As usual, activities will be provided for the entire family, beginning with dinner at 6:00 p.m. in Asbury Center, followed by age-appropriate activities at 6:45 p.m. We will finish each evening at 7:30 p.m.

March 1st: Shrove Tuesday Celebration

Join us on the eve of Lent for an evening of fun and frivolity for all ages. A sausage and pancake supper will begin the night, followed by fun and games around the tables.

March 8th, 15th, & 22nd: Lenten Study, The Passion Play

Recognize your own place in the story and Passion of Jesus. With few exceptions, the Oberammergau Passion Play has been presented by the inhabitants of the village of Oberammergau, Bavaria, Germany every 10 years since 1634. The play is a staging of Jesus'

Passion story, covering the final period of his life from his visit to Jerusalem to the journey to the cross..

In his book and study, The Passion Play: Living the Story of Christ's Last Days, author and pastor Rob Fuquay follows the biblical story of the Passion and how it has been experienced through the centuries against the backdrop of this amazing play. As you may have heard, the 2020 version of the Passion Play has been rescheduled to this year in Oberammergau.

Perfect for Lent, this study takes you on a journey to the origins of the Passion Play and helps you understand how the play has been used through the centuries. Each week, we will “travel” by video featuring author Rob Fuquay filmed on location in Oberammergau, Germany.

March 29th: A Musical Celebration of the Life & Work of Charles Wesley

This date will be the 234th anniversary of the death of Charles Wesley in the year 1788. Our Pastor and Director of Music will lead us through this special celebration of his incredible life and work.

W PA UMC Bishop Cynthia Moore-Koikoi is leading a European educational tour this fall that includes a visit to the Oberammergau Passion Play. For information on the trip, go to “Join Bishop for Alpine Odyssey” on the website of the Western PA UMC Conference: www.wpaumc.org .

From Pastor Christian and our German partner church:

Greetings from Zwickau and Pastor Christian to Our Friends, Brothers and Sisters in Mt. Lebanon!

We are living in challenging times. The pandemic also has our country in its grip--some things just aren't possible. However, faith remains, community remains, and being there for each other remains. We celebrate services and try to stay in contact as much as possible. Some new work efforts have begun--we continue to learn new things. In our congregation there have also been various corona cases--we are thankful for the gift of the vaccination and believe that we as a congregation can overcome these big hurdles. One death of interest to MLUMC that was not related to corona was the death of Monika Dressel, who died on September 27, 2021, at the age of 79. Monika was known by all those who traveled to Zwickau since she usually hosted our work efforts in her created Garden of the Senses. Although she was totally blind, she always managed to get to know us.

We hope to see you soon!
